David Terre—Place 4

Years of council service: 4

Term expiration: Nov. 2017

Additional titles: member of the Denton Central Appraisal District Board of Directors.

Place 4 City Councilmember David Terre was first elected to The Colony City Council in 2011. Previously, he had served three years on the city's Planning and Zoning Commission, where he currently serves as the council liaison.

Terre is originally from Washington, Mo. He has lived in Texas since 1977, and moved to The Colony in 1999. He attended Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa, where he earned a degree in business administration with a minor in economics and was inducted into the Drake Basketball Hall of Fame.

After college, Terre began a 46-year career with Wilson Sporting Goods. While serving as European Sales Manager for Wilson in Germany, he was able to fulfill his dream of playing professional basketball by signing a contract with the Ford Motor Co. Team in Antwerp, Belgium. Basketball became his lifelong passion, which included winning three gold medals for Team USA in the Senior Olympics.

Place 4 City Councilmember David Terre is pictured with local students who collected Letters to Santa as part of a charity fundraising endeavor.