Senior Center hosts annual health fair

THE COLONY, Texas — The Colony Community Center will be hosting its sixth annual Health and Info Fair from 8 a.m. to noon Friday, May 24.

The fair will feature about 35 vendors with a wide variety of services and products for residents age 50 and up. Vendors will be giving away informational handouts, promotional items, and door prizes. Free screenings provided will include blood pressure, blood sugar, BMI, and more.

Services represented will include: independent living, assisted living, rehabilitation centers, health clinics, insurance, final arrangements, benefits counselor, alarm services, fire and police, hospitals, personal care, home health care, hospice and several social service agencies.

“The Health & Info Fair is a community wide event geared specifically to those age 50-plus, their friends, relatives, and caregivers,” said Diana Holland, Senior/Community Center coordinator for the Parks and Recreation Department. “There will be a wealth of information available in one central location, making it easy for you to find answers to your questions. You won’t want to miss out on this opportunity.”

Admission is free. Bring a friend and receive an extra door prize ticket. The senior center is at 5151 North Colony Blvd. For more information, call Holland at 972-624-2246.
