TopGolf-The Colony earns another award

THE COLONY, Texas — The city's partnership with one of the nation's premier entertainment and dining venues has again been honored by the business media with an annual award.

On a night that featured dignitaries from the city of Dallas, the George W. Bush Presidential Center, and the Dallas Cowboys, The Colony's own TopGolf facility was recognized as the Dallas Business Journal's Best Retail/Restaurant Deal for 2013.

The award was presented during the Dallas Business Journal's 22nd annual Best Real Estate Deal of the Year Awards on April 29 at The Ritz-Carlton in Dallas.

Diane Baxter, Director of Communications and Tourism for the City of The Colony, said the city was proud to partner with TopGolf and excited to see a member of the local business community be honored alongside the best of the best in Dallas-Fort Worth.

"The leadership at both City Hall and the Economic Development Corporation were very aware that TopGolf would be a fantastic addition to our community and draw visitors from all over the Metroplex," she said. "Continued recognition by the region's business analysts goes to show this deal was a hole-in-one."

The award comes on the heels of TopGolf-The Colony being recognized by D CEO Magazine in March as the Best Retail Deal of 2013.
