Bridges Cemetery opens to honor veterans

THE COLONY, Texas – In conjunction with the city’s “American Heroes: A Salute to Veterans” event, Bridges Cemetery will be open to the public from noon to 3 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 8.

To honor the veterans buried in Bridges Cemetery, members of The Colony Public Library’s Local History Committee will place flags on soldiers’ graves, give tours, and answer questions about The Colony’s history. Copies of the committee’s publication, Bridges to the Future, will be available to purchase for $10.

Bridges Cemetery is at the northwest corner of Morning Star Drive and Chesapeake in The Colony.

For more information, call The Colony Public Library at 972-625-1900, ext. 3, or email Megan Charters at mcharters@thecolonypl.org.
