Election update: Runoff scheduled for Place 6

THE COLONY, Texas — Results of Tuesday’s The Colony City Council Election will be officially canvassed by the council at its Nov. 18 regular meeting.

Meanwhile, voters in The Colony City Council Place 6 are reminded that since none of the candidates received a majority of the vote, a runoff between the candidates who received the most votes, Joel Marks and Chris Patterson, will be required to decide the seat.

The date for the runoff election will be Tuesday, Dec. 9. Early voting times and locations are still to be determined. The runoff will be officially called at the Nov. 18 meeting. Winners from the Nov. 4 election will also be sworn-in at 7 p.m. that night.
