

PRESS RELEASE — Oct. 14, 2015
The Colony Public Library: 972-625-1900

Twilight at Bridges Cemetery

THE COLONY, Texas — The Colony Public Library Local History Committee will host a twilight event at Bridges Cemetery from 5 to 7 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 24.

Don't miss the opportunity to explore Bridges Cemetery at sunset! Red River Historian Robin Cole-Jett will present, "Documented Spirits," featuring tales from old timers about winged creatures, poisonous potions, and spirit avengers from the North Texas prairies in a compilation of ghostly tales gleaned from the Library of Congress.

This event is free to the public and will include fall refreshments and a pumpkin-carving contest. Bring your best carved pumpkin for a chance to win a prize. Copies of the committee's book, Bridges to the Future, will be available for sale for $10. Don't forget to bring your flashlight!

Bridges Cemetery is at the corner of Morning Star and Chesapeake drives in The Colony. For more information, visit www.thecolonypl.org or email Megan Charters, Technical Services Librarian, at mcharters@thecolonypl.org.

In the event of rain, the activities will be moved to The Colony Public Library, 6800 Main St.

###