Police respond to aggravated robbery

THE COLONY, Texas – At 10:27 a.m. Tuesday, June 21, The Colony Police Department responded to report of an armed robbery that occurred in the parking lot of the Avana Stonebriar Apartments, located at 5620 South Colony Blvd.

Three victims were seated in a parked vehicle when they were approached by three suspects who had pulled behind them in another vehicle. The three suspects approached the victim's vehicle and one suspect displayed a handgun, while another suspect displayed a knife, and demanded money and wallets.

After the victims complied, one suspect pistol-whipped two of the victims who sustained injuries during the robbery. The same suspect then fired multiple rounds into the lower portion of the left quarter panel of the victim's vehicle. All three suspects fled from the scene and were not captured. Two of the three victims remained at the scene and were interviewed by the Criminal Investigations Division of The Colony Police Department.

TCPD is actively investigating this incident to determine the identity and location of the suspects. If you have any additional information, please contact Sergeant Jay Goodson, in the Professional Standards Division, at 972-624-3925.
