

PRESS RELEASE – July 21, 2016

Communications: 972-624-3104

Seasonal algae impacts water taste but not safety

THE COLONY, Texas — Residents may have noticed what some have described as an “earthy taste” in their water recently. The City's Water Production Department says this is because hot weather has led to algae bloom in area lakes that feed the water supply. It is normal for this time of year and should dissipate as the Dallas Water Utility adjusts its ozone treatments to compensate. The water is safe.

For information, call Customer Service at 972-625-4471.

###