History Committee: ‘Why Your Story Matters’

THE COLONY, Texas — The Colony Public Library’s Local History Committee will host a program on memories and personal narratives at 1 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 4, in the Multi-Purpose Room of the Library, 6800 Main St.

Thatcher Freund, a journalist and memoir writer, will talk about the importance of stories in our lives, both to ourselves and to the culture we live in, and why it matters so much that we preserve them. “We are nothing except our memories and every memory is a story.”

This program will be presented in celebration of The Colony Public Library’s 35th anniversary. For more information, email Megan Charters, Technical Services Librarian, at mcharters@thecolonypl.org.
