Annual Senior Health & Info Fair on Friday, May 12

THE COLONY, Texas — The 11th annual Health and Info Fair at The Colony Community Center will feature approximately 30 vendors with a wide variety of services and products for residents age 50 and up. The doors will open at 9 a.m. and the fair will run until noon. Vendors will be giving away informational handouts, promotional items, and door prizes.

Free screenings provided will include: blood pressure; balance; grip strength; bone density; eye-glass adjustments; and more. Services represented will include: senior living community; rehabilitation center; health clinic; insurance and benefits counselor; fire and police; personal care; home health care; eye doctor; dentist; hospice; and several social service agencies.

“The Health & Info Fair is a community wide event geared specifically to those ages 50-plus, their friends, relatives, and caregivers,” said Diana Holland, Senior/Community Center Coordinator for The Colony Parks and Recreation Department. “There will be a wealth of information available in one central location, making it easy for you to find answers to your questions. You won’t want to miss out on this opportunity.”

Admission is free. For more information, call the Community Center, 5151 North Colony Blvd., at 972-624-2246.
