

PRESS RELEASE – July 27, 2017
Police Department: 972-625-1887

Barricaded Subject at Comfort Suites Motel

THE COLONY, Texas - On Thursday July 27, 2017 at approximately 12:17 p.m., The Colony Police Department responded to a report of gunfire inside a room at the Comfort Suites Motel located at 4796 Memorial Dr. The Colony, Texas 75056.

Officers arrived on scene and the subject fired several shots from inside his room. The motel was evacuated by The Colony Police. The subject barricaded himself inside his room. The Colony Police Special Response Team was called to the scene.

The subject fired several more rounds from inside his room. Officers attempted to breach the room door by firing shotgun rounds at the lock and hinges. The subject crashed through his window and was taken into custody. The subject was transported to Baylor Scott and White Hospital in Carrollton, Texas. The subject was treated and released with minor injuries that were the result of when he jumped through the window.

The suspect, Scott Clark Zandi (51) of Lubbock Texas, is in custody at The Colony Police Department Jail pending charges.

The Comfort Suites Motel is still closed down at this time while Detectives investigate the crime scene.

#TCPD

