Volunteers sought to help plant monarch waystations

THE COLONY, Texas — As part of Mayor Joe McCourry's Monarch Pledge to help make the city a friendly place for monarch butterflies and other pollinators, the Keep The Colony Beautiful Board invites residents to help prepare and plant three waystations for monarch butterflies along The Tribute Shoreline Trail.

The event is scheduled for 8 to 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 23. Volunteers will meet at the trail head at the intersection of Millbank and Adelaide in The Tribute. Participants are encouraged to bring a rake and work gloves but all other materials will be provided, including light refreshments.

Please click the following event notice to register or call 972-624-3151 for more information. The Mayor's Monarch Pledge is a program of the National Wildlife Federation.
